ATTENTION ALL PROPERTY OWNERS:

Noxious Weeds are non native plant species that have been introduced into our environment that generally do not have any natural biological controls. These weeds have an aggressive and competitive nature and this enables the weeds to push out native species and become the dominant plant species. The Colorado Noxious Weed Act directs all Federal, State, County, Municipal and Private Landowners to manage listed species. Routt County has listed the following noxious weeds to be managed:

Whitetop | Yellow and Dalmatian Toadflax | All Knapweeds
Houndstongue | Leafy Spurge

The Steamboat Springs Community Development Code enables fines of up to $999.00 per day/ per violation for private property owners not in compliance with the Routt County Weed Plan.

For more information, please contact Barb Wheeler at 879 - 7072, Craig Robinson at 879 - 4300 (ext. 334) or go to www.co.routt.co.us/ to view more information.

BEARS ARE OUT OF HIBERNATION!

May is Search and Rescue Awareness Month

BE PREPARED

The one common denominator of all backcountry enthusiasts should be an emphasis on safety.

- Never go alone.
- Tell your friends your destination and expected time of return. Leave a note in your car at the trailhead with this information, especially if you change your plans.
- Take a map and compass and know how to use them.
- Know your physical condition.
- Listen to local weather reports and prepare for extreme conditions.
- Dress in layers and take adequate clothing. Also bring a space blanket.
- Bring more water than you think you will need and plenty of food.
- Be aware of your surroundings and the weather. Regularly look backward and around you. Note landmarks and compass bearings. Keep in mind your return route.
- If you get confused, STOP! Stay put and stay warm.

Economic Summit 2008

May 21 - 22

Steamboat Grand Hotel and Conference Center

Planes, Trains, and Automobiles

Transportation and our Economic Future

Transportation in and around and access to our community are critical components of our sense of community and our economic vitality. How can our visitors access us? Where do we park? How can we get our workforce here? Are there alternatives to congestion points? Can rail service be of regional value? What are some of the plans for improving traffic flow and how will they impact your business? These are some of the questions that we will be looking at this year.

The City has engaged the services of GreenPlay LLC, a nationally renowned park and recreation consulting firm, to help conduct a community needs assessment as part of a Parks and Recreation Master Plan. The intent of this comprehensive plan is to identify our community's park and recreation needs so we can proactively plan for the future. In order to identify these needs, we are asking for your participation.

Kick-off meeting Wednesday, May 28, 2008 beginning at 5:30 pm at the Community Center/Community Center West, 1605 Lincoln Avenue.
