

Town Hall Format Set for November Coffee with Council

Casual, Open Format Allows Discussion Of Any Question or Area of Interest

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-November 6, 2018-Join Councilman Scott Ford and other available council members for Coffee with Council scheduled for Friday, November 9 from 7:30am to 9:00am.

The November Coffee with Council session will feature an open format Town Hall taking any question or item of interest from participants. With plenty ahead of council before the end of the year, areas of conversation could touch upon results of recent elections on Steamboat Springs, annexation status, Yampa River management, proposed plastic bag ban/fee discussion or any other area of focus.

Coffee with Council sessions are typically held the second Friday of each month in the Crawford Room of Centennial Hall (124 10th Street). The goal is to provide an opportunity for community members to meet with city council members in a relaxed atmosphere and discuss any issues of interest to them. Other cities and towns in Colorado have also adopted this approach in order to increase interaction between council and community members, and to promote greater transparency in city business.

No RSVP is necessary, community members are welcome to drop by to discuss any issues of interest to them. Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.
