

2022 Community Support Funding Request Deadline Looms

Applications Accepted Through Yampa Valley Community Foundation

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-September 16, 2021-The City of Steamboat Springs Community Support Funding, housed at the Yampa Valley Community Foundation, has provided more than $4M over the past decade to qualifying organizations across the Yampa Valley. The first funding application deadline for the upcoming 2022 year is Friday, October 1, 2021.

“While each coalition has a specific deadline, any organization interested in applying or one that isn’t currently part of a coalition, should submit materials by the October 1 deadline,” stated Finance Director Kim Weber. “No one should miss out on these valuable community funds.”

The City of Steamboat Springs City Council allocates several hundreds of thousands of dollars in funds each year to assist community organizations that fall within one of the following allocations coalitions – Arts & Culture, Environmental and Human Resource. Applications are ranked on a set of criteria by a selection committee with expertise in the coalition focus.

COALITION DEADLINES

Human Resource
October 1 – 5pm

Environmental
