

Steamboat Springs Police Coffee with Cops Returns Quarterly Starbucks Hosts Community Fall Event on Thursday, November 11

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO-November 8, 2021-The full-strength version of Coffee with Cops returns this week, Thursday, November 11, as the Steamboat Springs Police Department and Starbucks brew up a fresh version of this community tradition.

“The days are getting shorter, and winter is on the horizon and a good cup of coffee is a great way to take on these brisk days,” said SSPD Patrol Sergeant Shane Musgrave. “We couldn’t think of a better way to take on the day than spending it with residents of our city and getting to know each other better.”

Steamboat Springs Police Officers as well as interim Police Chief Stabile will be on hand in the lobby for this full caffeine edition from 11am to 1pm at the Starbucks flagship location in Steamboat Springs (225 Anglers Drive). Starbucks will host the quarterly Coffee with Cops gatherings over the coming year.

Enjoy interacting with officers from the day shift while savoring a freshly brewed cup of coffee. Coffee with a Cop is based on the police department’s daily briefing meetings, which allows face to face interaction, sharing information and checking in with each other in a compressed time frame.

The program is designed to allow open, two-way dialogue between the community and the police department and its officers. The program allows community members to ask questions and learn about the men and women who serve our community.

Most contact law enforcement experiences with the public occurs during emergencies, or emotional situations. As one can understand, those situations are not the most effective time or way to build relationships.
